MAN WAS NOT MADE TO MOURN.

There is a voice which haunts me still,
Where'er on earth I be;
In lonely vale, on lofty hill,
And on the distant sea—
I hear it in the silent night,
And at the break of morn,
And aye it crieth—dark or light—
Man was not made to mourn!

In every stream that seaward flows,
That voice salutes mine ear;
In every wind that round me blows,
Its thrilling notes I hear;
In every sound of Nature's heart,
The cheerful or forlorn,
This ever bears the better part—
Man was not made to mourn!

The sun, that glads the summer noon,
The light that blesteth all,
The myriad stars, the quiet moon,
The showers from heaven that fall,
The flowers which in our meadows grow,
Our mountain paths adorn—
All, all in their own fashion show
Man was not made to mourn!

All Nature cries aloud—but man
Regards not Nature's voice;
Perverth her benignant plan,
Her workmanship destroys—
From her fair book the brightest page
With impious hand has torn,
Yet still she cries, from age to age,
Man was not made to mourn!

O gentlest mother! may thy child
Ere long thy lesson read;
Embrace thy precepts, loving, mild,
Thy fraternizing creed:
Then shall the blessed end be known
For which he has been born;
And all shall feel from zone to zone,
Man was not made to mourn!

DANGER OF ICE CREAM.

A "down east" editor has had a visit from a Vermont, who bears the name of Ethan Spike. This genius has been experimenting upon the luxury known in Gotham as Ice Cream, and the following is given as the result of his first experiment:

"One day towards sundown, I was going by a shop in Middle street that looked wonderful sick; there was all manner of candy an' josamints, an' whatnots at the winder; an' there was signs with gold letters to 'em hangin' round the door, tellin' how they sold soda, mead, an' ice cream there. I sez to myself,—I've heern a good deal about this ice cream, an' now blow me if I won't see what they are made of." So I put my hands intew my pockets, and walked in kinder careless and sez tew a chap 'standin' behind the counter,—Do you keep any ice cream here?"

"Yes, sir," sez he, how much will you have?"

"I considered a minnit on't, an' sez I 'a pint, sir."

"The young feller's face swelled out, an' he liked to larf right out; but after a while he asked,—

"Did you say a pint, sir?"

"Sartin," sez I, "but p'raps you don't retail, so I don't mind takin' a quart."

"Wal, don't you think the fellow snorted right out. Tell yer what, it made me feel sorter pison, and gin him a look that made him look sober in about a minnit; an' when I clinch'd my fist an' look at him," [here Mr. Spike favored us with a most diabolical expression of his countenance] "he hauled in his horns about the quickest, an' handed me a quart of it as perlite as could be. Wal, I tasted a mouthful of it an' found it as cool as the north side of Bethel Hill, in Jennewary. I'd half a mind to spit it out, but just then I seen the confectionary chap grinnin' behind the door, which riz my spunk. Gall smash it all, thinks I, I'll not let that white livered monkey think I'm afeard; I'll eat the darn stuff if it freezes my in'ards. I tell yer what, I'd rather skin'd a bear or whipt a wild cat, but I went it; I eat the hull in about a minnit."

"Wal, in about quarter of an hour I begun to feel rather grippy about here," continued Ethan pointing to the lower part of his stomach, "an' kept on feeling no better fast, till at last it seemed as though I'd got a steam engine a sawin' shingles in me."

"I sot down in a cheer an' bent myself up like a nutcracker, thinkin' I'd grin and bear it; but I couldnt set still, I twisted and squirmed about like a fishworm on a hook, till at last the chap that gin me the cream, and who had been lookin' an' enic'erin', sez to me—

"Mister, what ails you?"

"Ails me?" sed I, "that are darned stuff of yours is freezin' up my daylight's!"

Ethan required a great deal of "doctrin" before he was "set to rights," after the quart of ice cream.

The following we clip from one of our exchanges, and publish it for the benefit of our lady readers:

TO MAKE A DRESS SET IN CLOSE TO THE WAIST.—Miss Leslie says: "In finishing the dress, take about a yard and a half or a yard and a quarter, of broad twilled tape, sew the tape strongly in three places to the lower part of the inside of the back, exactly where the body joins the skirt. It must be sewed precisely at the middle of the back, and at each of the side seams under the arms. When you put on the dress, bring the tape round, and fasten it in front under the skirt, and just before the fore body. It draws the dress closely in the waist, and makes the back look hollow."

SCIENTIFIC.—An old lady who had been reading Locke's famous moon story very attentively, replied with emphasis, that the idea of the moon's being inhabited was too incredible to believe; "for," said she, "what becomes of the people when the moon is nothing but a little streak?"

A GOOD JOKE.—A Hoosier, saw a man with an enormous mustache, and stared at him fixedly until the victim angrily exclaimed "what are you looking at?"

"There," shouted the hoosier, "I knew you had a mouth. Let's drink or fight, I don't care which myself. They drank."

"Hog or dog?"—that's the question," as the fellow said when he sat down to a dish of fried sausages.

Wood that won't burn, and women that won't listen to reason, are two happy things.

They tell a story about a Yankee tailor dining a man for the amount of his bill. The man said, "he was sorry, very sorry indeed, that he couldn't pay it." "Well," said the tailor, "I took you for a man that would be sorry, but if you are sornier than I am, I'll quit."

The Stars says, there are about three hundred and fifty lawyers in the city of Boston.

The Court of Inquiry in the case of Gen. Gaines is fully organized, and proceeded to business on Thursday.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 5, 1846.

ENTERPRISE.—The New York Tribune, of Monday evening, which we received by the mail yesterday morning, contains the news of the arrival of the Hibernia in Boston Monday morning. Thus we get the news of the arrival of the steamer in Boston, through the Tribune, seven hours in advance of the Boston mail. The Tribune, we believe, is the only New York paper received here yesterday morning containing the news. It says:

"This intelligence was announced in Boston at half past six, and placed on the bulletin of the Tribune in this city, at twenty minutes past six! The difference between the two cities being fifteen minutes."

AN AMERICAN VESSEL FIRED UPON.—The barque Creole, Capt. Norris, from Corrientes, arrived at Baltimore on Thursday night. The Creole took in a cargo of hides up the Parana river, and only stopped at Montevideo about 36 hours. In sailing down the Parana river from Corrientes at the head of a convoy formed of vessels of various flags, the Creole was fired into from one of the Argentine forts repeatedly, one only taking effect—it carried away entirely one of the staterooms, and splintered a large spar that was on deck, but injured no one. The shot was saved, and proved to be 13-12 pounds.—Capt. Norris thinks several British vessels were sunk.

The New York Tribune says "the original papers found on the person of Major Andre, in the handwriting of Arnold, the passports of John Anderson and his boatman, plan of forts at West Point, their armament, and number of troops, &c., may be seen at 186 Fulton street. They belong to the De Witt Clinton family, for a member of which they are now being framed. They have been carefully preserved, and are but little worn. Each word is as distinct as when first traced by the traitor."

We are repeatedly under obligations to Mr. BENNETT, of the steamer Neptune, and Mr. GARCIA, of the Massachusetts, for New York and Boston papers, for which they will please accept our thanks.

We were supplied with Boston papers on Monday evening, containing the news by the Hibernia, and also English papers, by Mr. Bennett.

THE ALLEGHANIAN.—This truly American title has been adopted by a party of young Native Vocalists, who have attracted much attention in New York, where their Concerts have been most eminently successful. The press of that city is loud in their praise, and ranks them as the best vocal band that has ever appeared in this country. They consist of four singers, three gentlemen and one lady, who are accompanied by a Pianist of rare ability.—Most of their pieces are original, having been written expressly for them by General Morris, and other eminent and popular writers. They announce their intention of giving one or two of their Concerts here, commencing on Thursday evening.

We have not space to-day to make selections from the numerous flattering eulogues bestowed upon them, by the most influential journals, but trust they will secure a fair share of patronage.

DOING "THE STATE SOME SERVICE."—We understand by a gentleman direct from Fort Leavenworth, says an exchange, that on the night of the 15th of July, a lady, the wife of a United States officer, gave birth to three fine boys, all doing well, when our informant left. In time of peace prepare for war.

STEADINESS OF AIM.—We should consider this world as a great commercial mart, where fortune holds out to us various commodities, riches, ease, fame, knowledge, &c. Every thing is marked at a settled price.—Our time, our labor, our ingenuity, are so much ready money, which we are to lay out to the best advantage. Examining, choose, compare, reject, but stand to your own decision, and not, like children, when you have purchased one thing, lament that you do not possess another, which you did not purchase. There is no quality which so much dignifies human nature, as consistency of conduct. Even if a man's pursuits are not justifiable, yet if they are maintained with steadiness, and vigor, we cannot withhold our admiration.

The two cannon balls used to ornament the marble pillars of the gateway at the southern entrance of the Park, New York, were presented to that city, by Com. Perry, and were manufactured by the Moslem gunners for the purpose of defending the pass of the Dardanelles.

The vessel which was run into the other day, by the schooner Cygnet, and supposed to have been sunk, proves to be the schooner Nimrod, from Albany bound for Boston. She has since arrived at Hyannis. She was cut down to the water's edge. Her cargo was not much damaged.

NIAGARA.—A correspondent of a Rochester paper says:—"The great falls have an average height of one hundred and sixty feet. The measurements made a few years ago show that 22,470,000 cubic feet of water descend this fearful leap every minute—or 701,000 tons of water. Its moving power would be 4,532,000 horse power. It has been calculated that all the motive power of Great Britain is not one fortieth of this mighty mountain."

WAX STATUARY.—Those that have any curiosity to see what kind of a looking woman Maria A. Bickford was, will now have an opportunity. The history of this woman's life and death is fresh in the memory of every individual who reads a newspaper, and it will be remembered that she was represented as being very beautiful; she certainly was, if she looked like a wax statue of her, now being exhibited at Ocean Lodge's new and splendid Hall, nearly opposite the Custom House. Together with the statue of Mrs. Bickford, are several others. King Solomon sitting in judgment in the case of the two harlots, spoken of in the 1st King, 3d chapter, 16th verse, where they both laid claim to one child, and in order to find which its real mother was, ordered it to be cut asunder, and give each a half. This had its desired effect, for the anxiety of the one, and the indifference of the other, showed which of the two it belonged to. A monstrous Boa-Constrictor, in the act of swallowing a man, is also among them. These figures are all of the highest finish, and have a lifelike appearance which is surprising. Go and see them.

Lieut. Dens has been restored to his company.

THE APOLLO VOCALISTS.—In calling attention to the advertisement of these popular singers, we must congratulate our citizens, and particularly the strangers who are sojourning with us during the summer months, upon the opportunity they now have of enjoying a rich musical treat. These young gentlemen bring with them a good professional reputation; which, however, is unnecessary as far as Newport is concerned, for the townspeople have already, last Spring, set the seal of their approval on the performance of the "Vocalists."

We sincerely hope they will have a full house, upon this occasion, and that other arrangements will not prevent them from giving two or three more of their Select Entertainments.

TWO LECTURES—DEATH ON THE PALE HORSE, AND CHRIST HEALING THE SICK; ALL FOR 12 1-2 CENTS.—These two wonderful pictures, acknowledged in all parts of the country, and in Europe, to excel any work of art ever set forth on canvass. It drew together large crowds of admiring spectators yesterday afternoon and evening, and certainly it could not have well been otherwise, at the very small price charged for admission. There is no person of taste or sentiment in Newport, but what will visit these paintings before they are removed, which, by the by, will be on Friday morning next. No one can form any adequate idea of the treat they have in store, until they have the pleasure of gazing upon these two wonderful designs of the immortal West. The doors will be open constantly from morning, until 9 1-2 o'clock at night. Lectures will be given at 11 o'clock A. M., and at 4, 6, and 8 o'clock P. M., this day and to-morrow.

CORNS!
MADAM BERHARD, Corn Doctor, (from Paris), politely announces her arrival from N. York, to the citizens and visitors of Newport, and will feel obliged to those who will honor her with a call, at MRS. BURDICK'S, first house in Young-st., near Thames; and has the honor to inform the public that, by a new and peculiar method, she extracts Hard and Soft Corns, Bunions, Callosities, &c., Without Cutting.

Madam B. does not attempt to offer a nostrum, requiring secrecy or faith to require its efficacy, but confidently assuring those who may suffer from troublesome and painful Corns, that they may have the satisfaction of carrying away their tormentor, their Corn, in their hands.

Madam B. has been practising in the U. States for six years, and in that time she has received testimonials from some of the most eminent ladies and gentlemen, as to the benefit and comfort which they have received since their feet have been attended to by her. The operation will not occupy more than 10 minutes, and the relief is so instantaneous that persons thus treated can put on their shoes and walk without the least inconvenience.

Madam B. has practised her profession for several years in Boston, New York, Germany, France, and England, and has acquired much skill, and great practical experience—a fact attested by numerous certificates from the most celebrated physicians both of Europe and America; as well as from the nobility and gentry of those countries, delivered to her after four month's cure.

Ladies and gentlemen will be waited upon at their residence.

Ladies and gentlemen who wish Madam B's services, are invited to call as soon as possible.

Madam B. has in her possession upwards of 1,500 certificates.

From the Philadelphia Enquirer and Courier
RELIEF TO THE AFFLICTED.—We alluded a few days since to the remarkable, efficacious and painless method adopted by Madam Berhard, of 459 Broadway, N. Y. and 151 Court street, Boston, in extracting Corns and curing troublesome Tumors of the feet. We are now induced to refer again to the subject, partly in consequence of more than one friend having called upon us to record their testimony as to the sudden and entire relief they have experienced from the operation of Professor; and chiefly because so many persons are in the habit of advertising remedies for Corns, &c., which are mere empiricism and pretence. The parties who are now in our office, and who have been under the treatment of Madam Berhard, assure us that they did not experience the slightest pain during the process of extraction, and that it was accomplished with an almost magical celerity. We observe also that some of the most eminent Physicians, both of Boston and New York, as well as of this city, have given testimonials to the above effect to Madam Berhard, the writers having experienced a relief from Corns, which had pained them for years. From the Boston Atlas.

Madam Berhard, at 151 Court street, is said by those who have experienced relief at her hands, to effect a radical cure of the most inveterate corns. There is said to be no mistake about it. It is a great discovery, and we recommend all the afflicted to try.

If I can but induce the people to call upon me, I will give them the most positive proof of the truth of this assertion, as I am determined to secure for the United States Clothing Store a tremendous run of custom, and aware as I am, that competition is so severe, that the only mode of success is to offer my Goods at a small advance on Cost. Will the people call upon me? I will give them the most positive and pleasing evidence of what I say; still more, I will not urge them with undue persuasion to purchase what they do not want. A valuable invention — a Sovereign remedy — a sure protection against Musquitoes and other poisonous insects.
RADWAY'S CHINESE MEDICATED SOAP, may truly be said, to be one of the most valuable, as well as the most scientific and useful invention for the health, comfort, and convenience of the human family, that mankind has ever been blessed with. As an alleviator and preventor of pain, or irritation occasioned by the bites or stings of Musquitoes, or other poisonous insects, this invaluable Soap is indeed a treasure. By applying it to the parts affected, it immediately abstracts the poison, allays the irritation, and protects the sufferer from all further annoyance from these troublesome insects.

TO THE LADIES.
We would particularly recommend this inestimable Soap to their notice. No lady's toilet is complete without this valuable Soap; and no other article of the Toilet is required, when you have this in your possession. None are so beautiful, but what this Soap will improve.
